4. AUCTION DEFINITIONS AND PROCEDURES

Bidders should be familiar with the basic procedures and terminology of the PEAC Auction process. This begins with an understanding of the relevant terms used.

Reserve Price - The Seller has the option to sell the Property at any price. The Seller of the Property has established a minimum price that it will accept for the Property. This is referred to as the Reserve Price. If the Reserve Price is not reached, the Seller is not required to sell the Property to the highest bidder (however, the Seller may choose to accept the Winning Bid).

Previous Value - "Previous Value" refers to the higher of the appraised value of the Property in connection with the most recent mortgage on the Property, the most recent sales price, the most recent asking price, the assessed value or the most recent broker price opinion for the Property.

Winning Bidder - The Winning Bidder is the person bidding on the Property who has been recognized by PEAC as the highest bid for that Property under auction guidelines. The Winning Bidder must immediately complete the Purchase Contract and return to PEAC within 4 hours after being notified by PEAC of the acceptance of his offer.

5. EXECUTION OF PURCHASE CONTRACT AND OPENING ESCROW

The Purchase Contract and Escrow Instructions must be executed by the Buyer immediately after becoming the Winning Bidder. The Winning Bidder's initial deposit must be wired to Escrow within 24 hours after being declared the Buyer. The form of the Purchase Contract is on the PEAC website www.PremiereEstates.com, and the Buyer is expected to have reviewed and become familiar with this agreement before attending the auction and bidding on the Property. The Seller has two business days to review and execute the Purchase Contract. The Purchase Contract shall govern the relationship of the Buyer and the Seller from the point of its execution by the Buyer and the Seller through the Close of Escrow for transaction. In the event of a conflict between the Terms and Conditions of the auction as set forth herein and the provisions of the Purchase Contract, the Purchase Contract provisions shall prevail.

Your Registration Deposit is due on or before July 31, 2018 by 12pm PT. The Buyer agree to pay all closing costs and other expenses as normally allocated to purchasers of real property in the area in which the Property is located and shall be obligated to pay the entire escrow fee.

8. BUYER'S LIABILITY FOR LIQUIDATED DAMAGES

In the event that the Buyer fails to complete the Purchase Contract as required under the terms thereof then it will be required to pay the Seller liquidated damages which will be ten percent (10%) of the total purchase price for the Property. The parties will be deemed to be mutually released from any further obligations regarding the completion of the purchase transaction. However, the foregoing shall not limit Buyer's obligations to pay to Seller all attorneys' fees and costs of Seller's to enforce the provisions of this agreement and/or buyer's indemnity obligations under this agreement. The retention of the initial deposit as liquidated damages is not intended to be a forfeiture or penalty, but is intended to constitute liquidated damages to Seller.

9. VESTING

The Buyers may take title in any manner which they determine. At the time of execution of the Purchase Contract, the Buyer will designate the manner with which it intends to take title. If title is not being taken by the Buyer individually, then the Buyer shall provide to escrow those organizational and authorizing documents requested by Escrow to verify the existence and authority of the entity which is taking title. The Seller will execute such deed as it determines in its sole discretion to transfer title to the Buyer at the Close of Escrow.

For purchases where the Buyer will take title other than as an individual, the documents which need to be provided at the time that escrow is opened include, but not are not limited to: Articles of Incorporation, Articles of Organization for Limited Liability Companies, Certificates of Partnership for Limited or General Partnerships, and Certifications or Declarations of Trust, depending upon the particular entity taking title. The Seller is under no obligation to clear any liens or exceptions affecting title to the Property or otherwise make the title to the Property marketable or insurable. If for any reason the Seller is not able to deliver free title subject to the exceptions permitted in the Purchase Contract, then either party may cancel the purchase transaction.

If a Buyer intends to use cash to complete their purchase transaction, the Buyer must provide satisfactory proof to both PEAC and the Seller upon the opening of escrow of their ability to produce sufficient funds to complete the transaction through payment of cash by the close of escrow. This may be established through bank statements or copies of other financial deposits.

11. BROKER PARTICIPATION

If the participating Broker does not sign the Purchase Contract at the Auction at the same time as their client, then it shall not be entitled to a commission from the Seller.

12. AGENCY DISCLOSURE
